Advertise with AWA

The AWA provides attractive advertising platforms to a unique multinational and upscale audience that is active in both the social and business communities of Hong Kong. We have both long-term residents and recently relocated families, a highly sought after demographic and target market for your products and services.

With 800+ paid members, AWA digital and print media are unique locations for your company to advertise. Our newly re-launched website averages 4,000 to 5,000 hits per month and AWAre, our glossy monthly print magazine, reaches 3,000 current and prospective members.

AWA members use relocation companies, real estate agents and professional services (doctors, accountants and lawyers); are interested in education and travel; and want to maintain an established lifestyle in terms of entertaining, home furnishings, style and personal care.

Your business can access this distinct, diverse female demographic on our website, via weekly and monthly eNewsletters, and our flagship monthly magazine, AWAre. This population is distinctly suitable for custom planned events, products and services.

Member Demographics

Print Advertising

AWAre magazine is the signature publication of the AWA. The magazine is intended for use by the AWA membership as a tool for sharing information about upcoming events, community service opportunities, local and foreign travel, as well as fundraising activities. AWAre features special interest articles, monthly columns, member features, a calendar of upcoming events and much more!

Competitive rates, flexible ad sizes and no monthly commitment combined with this marketable demographic makes AWAre an excellent sales tool.

- Published 9 times per year
- 4C glossy, saddle-stitched magazine written and published by members
- Printed distribution of over 1,000 copies reaches members and prospective members by mail and prospective members through real estate and relocation companies.
